Dear John Allen,

I received your letter of May 12 requesting that we consider supporting a young man or woman at the Missions Seminar in Searcy. You will be happy to know that we have already decided about this matter and have notified Brother Gurganus. I appreciate very much the enthusiasm that you able to convey in regard to this project.

Thank you very, very much for coming to Memphis today and delivering the inspiring lesson that you did on Christian Education. I know that you have so many calls and you get so tired, but you will be bless for this great work that you are doing for Jesus Christ now. Also, I want to thank you again for the courteous way that you received me in the Cookeville experience. The Lord bless you and use you. If I can ever help you in your work with Herald of Truth please call on me. "Remember Jesus Christ..."

Faithfully yours,

James Moffett
